Hourglass of Time

*together
for a small moment
in the great expanse of time
but we were swept away
to the pit known as past
in separate corners
we try to crawl back
to our center
knowing, that if the grains
should slow long enough
for us to meet
that such a moment
would be briefer than before.
so we stay, our souls left
in separate corners
while the future turning past
falls upon us
and we watch ourselves
fall again and again
from future through present to past . . .
in the hourglass of time.*

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Hackler, Principal

Time will explain it all.
He is a talker and needs
no questioning before he speaks,

—Arthor Unknown

Mrs. Wheeler, Secretary to the Principal

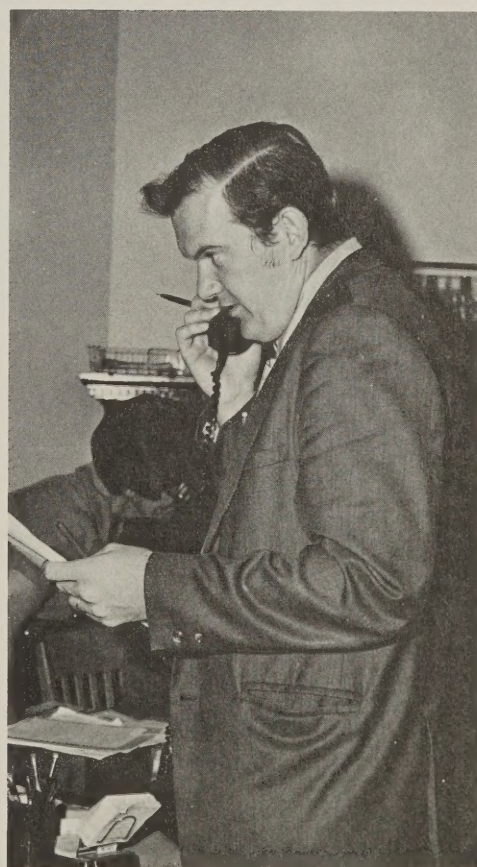

Mrs. Clendening, Secretary

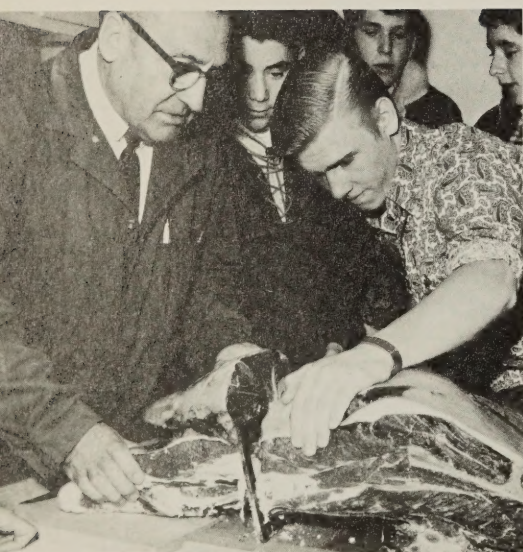

Mr. Ek, Assistant Principal

Mr. Brackley, Business Administrator

During Mr. Conner's thirty-seven years at Pinkerton Academy, he has become a legend not only as a teacher but also as a humanitarian. Students, parents, faculty, and friends alike, respect Mr. Conner for his competence, high principles, and willingness to help others. This respect has brought him national recognition for his agricultural work and his major role in developing New Hampshire's vocational curriculum. He will be missed not only as one of the best teachers to enter the Academy's doors, but also as a civic minded man of the community.

We thank you, Mr. Conner, for sharing with us your knowledge, inspiration, and human understanding so that each one of us might become the great man you have shown yourself to be.

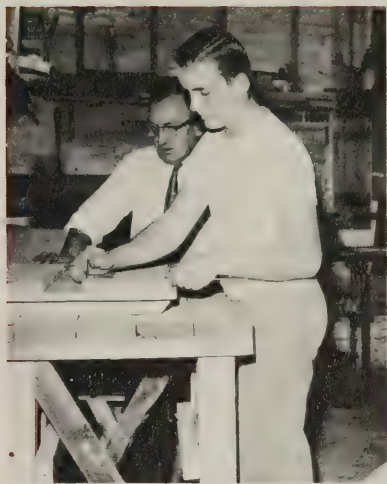

The whole life of man is but a point of time; let us enjoy it, therefore, while it lasts, and not spend it to no purpose.

DEDICATION

"Take my hand my child
And I will show you the morning sun.
I will teach you all that I know
And you will share with me
The secrets of your heart.
It may not be a fair exchange
But it is all that I have to offer."

Seniors

Time it was,
And what a time it was.
It was
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . .
But now it is a time of memories,
A time of hopes.
Look around,
The grass is high,
The fields are ripe,
It's the springtime of my life.

"Who are you?" said the Caterpillar.

Alice replied rather shyly, "I-I hardly know, Sir, just at present — at least I know who I was when I got up this morning, but I think I must have been changed several times since then."

"What do you mean by that?" said the Caterpillar, sternly. "Explain yourself!"

"I can't explain myself, I'm afraid, Sir," said Alice, "because I'm not myself, you see."

"I don't see," said the Caterpillar.

In Memoriam

GREGORY JAY KATSAKIORES

1955—1972

*There's something way down deep about every human being that's eternal to us, your eternity
lies in the memory of your friendship.
Pinkerton Academy "Class of 73"*

ALAN BARTLETT SHEPARD

1891—1973

Colonel Alan B. Shepard was a prominent alumnus and a highly respected treasurer and trustee of Pinkerton Academy for over 46 years. He was graduated from the Academy in 1909. Following in his father's footsteps, he was elected treasurer in 1925 and trustee in 1931, positions he held until his retirement in 1971. At that time he was named "Trustee Emeritus".

The Shepard name has been synonymous with service to the Academy for nearly 100 years. Upon his retirement he stated, "The progress of Pinkerton is indeed gratifying;" Colonel Shepard neglected to mention that this progress would not have been possible without his unselfish devotion to the Academy.

The Pinkerton Academy family salutes Colonel Shepard's dedication to our development.

Nothing is there
to come
and nothing past . . .
But an eternal
now does always last.

—A. Crowley

Boys' and Girls' State

W. Boyle, J. Clendening, B. Dore.

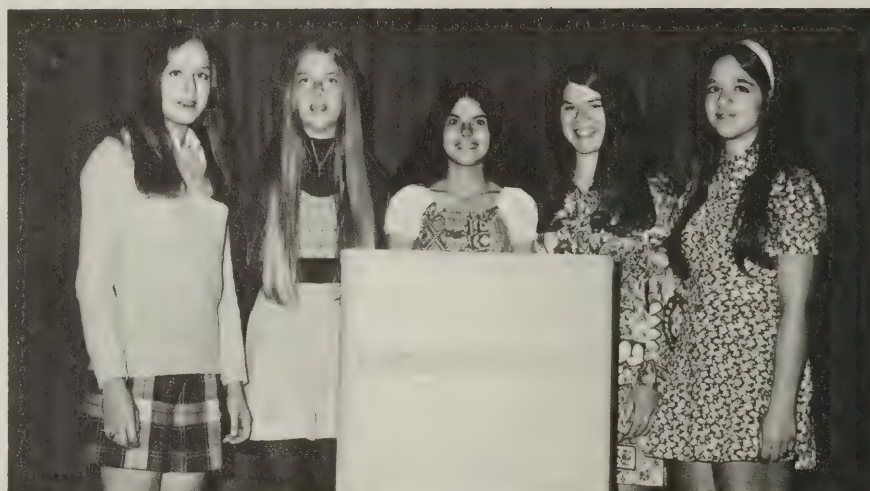

In the spring of 1972 these three juniors from Pinkerton Academy were chosen to attend Boys' State and Girls' State. For one week during the summer, selected juniors throughout New Hampshire were brought together to establish and preside over the imaginary states. The program which is sponsored by various American Legion Auxiliaries, functions mainly to educate these juniors about their surrounding government. However, it also provides a path to memorable friendships.

Junior Declamations

The Junior Declamation Contest is open to all juniors wanting to exhibit their talents in expression of literature.

The students compete on an equal basis, choosing their own material, with an outside group serving as judges.

An excerpt from the Shakespearian play Othello took first place for the class of "73".

C. Smith, M. Cote, L. Churnick, K. Mitchell, D. Wickens. Absent: B. Derhak.

St. Paul's Advanced Studies Program

Mr. Hackler; G. Leone, Shakespeare; S. Andrews, Greek; K. Mitchell, Shakespeare.

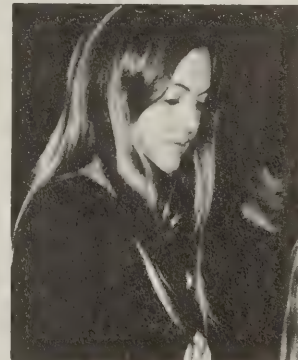

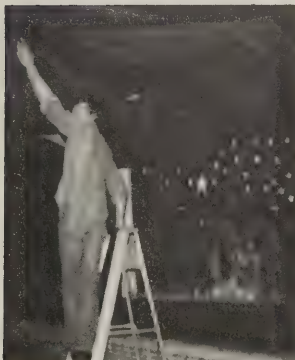

The Saint Paul's Advanced Studies Program is a unique summer learning experience shared by juniors across the state.

The students enjoy a concentrated study program in the area of their choice, balanced off by an English course, athletics, and nightly cultural events. In 1972, three Pinkerton students attended the six week program.

As Juniors, the Class of '73 presented the side slapping comedy "January Thaw", the tale of two rival families sharing the same house. The play went smoothly until Saturday night's show when one main character forgot a line and announced to the audience, "I have to go to the bathroom!" and ran off stage — an embarrassing but memorable moment which got a lot of laughs.

SENIOR CORN ROAST

During the football season the school participated in a "Spirit Week". This involved class color day, school colors day, teacher's casual day, and senior grease day. The student's participation boosted school spirit and made the week a success.

"STARDUST"

It was a long fifty hours for the seventeen members of the playcast of "Stardust." Everyday after school, between going to McDonald's and going insane, we worked diligently for that opening night and then on opening night . . . we found ourselves having nervous twitches of excitement and emotional trauma as the curtain opened. Then we found ourselves playing completely different characters in the school of drama in New Hampshire.

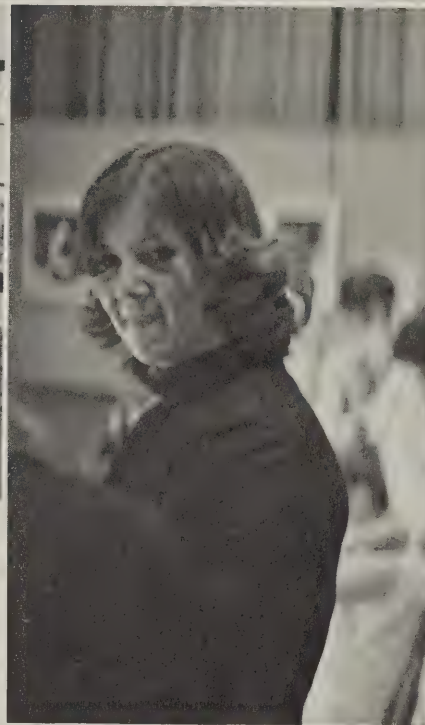

The long hours of hard work and ticket selling had paid off. The most spectacular moment of the play was when everyone turned into frustrated fishing poles, broken tea pots, tadpoles and sliced oranges. The audience roared making all the long hours of hard work and ticket selling worth all the effort.

CRITIC LITERARY STAFF

FIRST ROW: (L to R) C. Smith, K. Mitchell, S. Andrews, Miss Goranites, Advisor: B. Prudhomme, A. Crooker, K. Blackwood. SECOND ROW: B. Dore, P. Pendak, T. Gray, E. Mitchell, C. Quintal.

The 1973 Critic was made possible through the combined efforts of many people. Most outstanding of these was the stamina and unity of the members of the Literary Staff who toiled many hours searching for the perfect layout, picture or quotation to bring across the theme "A Space In Time." Two senior typists labored along with the staff to present the material in neat, orderly form. The Business Staff worked behind the scene to acquire much needed financial support from local businesses.

This year's Critic would not have been possible without the constant intercession of Miss Goranites and the advice of Miss Abbott.

Conservation of the country's natural resources has become an important issue over the last few years. Pinkerton has a class that provides the students with the knowledge of how to best preserve the nation's woodlands.

The Winter Carnival, under the theme of Nostalgia Childhood, was organized by the Junior Class and Future Teachers of America. The students participated in such events as volleyball, basketball, toboggan racing, snow sculpturing, and dressing as small children to earn points for their class. The class of 1974 was the overall winner of the events with the long awaited snow coming after the carnival ended.

The National Honor Society is the highest academic honor a student can obtain. Each year juniors and seniors are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. During the past year, the members attended two state conventions, sold candy to raise money and went on the Pinkerton Academy Student Scholarship Drive. In an effort to supplement the student's knowledge of career opportunities in the world today, the N.H.S. established a room in the guidance office which contained files, books, a mini-computer, and film strips which provided students with a strong foundation for making important decisions for their future.

Office Staff

Throughout the school year a dependable group of students, willing to sacrifice their study halls, assist Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Clendening in their respective offices. The students perform menial tasks and help with the paper work to relieve some of the burden from Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Clendening. They are invaluable to each office as the amount of work is too much for one person to handle.

Many a half time has been sparked up considerably by the Pinkerton Football Band's performance of intricate precisional formations out on the gridiron. Aside from the marching band, Pinkerton also has a Concert Band that presents annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, always marking off these two joyful seasons with the sound of music. An added bonus is Pinkerton's Dance Band which performs "Big Band" numbers from the thirties. Whether we win or whether we lose
This is a cheer we'll always choose.
T-E-A-M, YEAH TEAM!

Throughout the school year the cheerleaders worked hard preparing original pep rallies and cheers to promote school spirit. Come rain, snow, or sunshine the cheerleaders were always there supporting their team through victory or defeat. For the past three years the cheerleaders have held the "Best in Competition" trophy at cheering camp.

PINKERTON ACADEMY

With the score tied 2-2 and the outcome of the game deciding the Lakes Region Champion, it was only fitting that Captain Henry Deamon should win the next three face offs and the Pinkerton Academy Lacrosse team score 3 goals in 21 seconds to win a 5-2 contest over a very determined Proctor Academy Lacrosse team.

The game was indicative of the team's entire season as they had to fight for every game they played. Pinkerton wound up with a 5-0 record in Lakes Region competition defeating Holderness (5-2), Tilton (9-5), Berwick (5-0), New Hampton (8-7), and Proctor (5-2). Overall, Pinkerton wound up with a 11-1 record losing only to St. Paul's of Concord early in the season.

Pinkerton Academy Memorial Field

This is a sequence of the growth of Pinkerton's new Astro Stadium. The grand athletic field, situated in a perimeter of tall pine trees east of the Academy's Farm, is equipped for all sports and includes a running track and an adjacent baseball diamond.

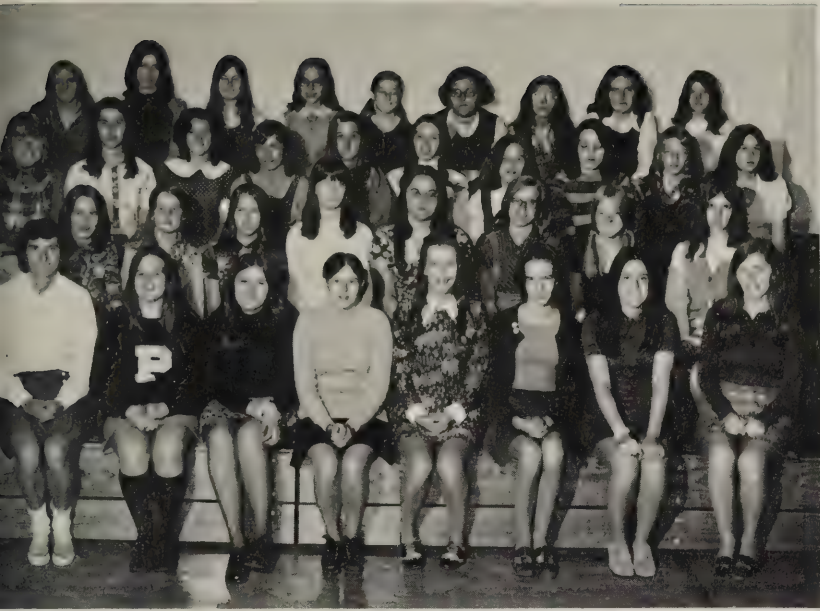

The stadium will seat 2800 fans, has a press box, and a new electronic scoreboard.

The complex was designed by engineer Col. Richard Low and is the newest addition to the Academy.

Girls' Bowling

One of the most popular girls' activities at Pinkerton is bowling. This program which enables participants to bowl once a week has received great enthusiasm and support making it one of the largest organizations.

The third annual Bowling Banquet had more than sixty people in attendance. At the gala affair awards and trophies were presented to the high scorers and to the team that won the most matches.

The highest averages last year belonged to Linda Kingsbury, Jean Nagle and Susan Borowski. The winning team was L. Burdick, S. Gratton, M. Manning and P. Willy. In appreciation a set of bowling balls was presented to Mrs. Guinnesso, advisor of the program.

1972-73 VARSITY

The 1972-73 basketball team started off triumphantly, winning its opening game for the first time in many years but soon found itself lost in a sea of big men. Lacking height, the team fought and scrapped for every point they could get and gave each opposing team a hard fought battle. Even though the season as a whole was an upset, it was not as bad as it seemed as the team lost 11 out of 14 games by 10 points or less. The outlook for the 1973-74 team looks good as the three leading scores were all Juniors and the Junior Varsity team compiled an impressive winning season.

Leading scorers Mike, John and Keith.

BASEBALL

The 1973 baseball team consisted of young determined men from each class. They began spring training March 12 and under the supervision of Head Coach Root and Assistant Coach Wood quickly got into shape. They then anxiously awaited their ambitious Class L Schedule. The coaches were pleased with the good turnout and were proud of the team's enthusiasm.

We're All Behind You—Big Red

If our friendship depends on things like space and time, then when we finally overcome space and time, we've destroyed our own brotherhood. But overcome space, and all we have left is Here. Overcome time, and all we have left is Now. And in the middle of Here and Now, don't you think that we might see each other once or twice.
